Hope! The Day Dawneth!

The Nashville Equal Suffrage League was organized four years ago with nine members. Today the membership is two thousand. To this splendid organization the following Acrostic was dedicated and presented.

New Eras cry for those of braver heart,
 And WOMAN'S Cause has its own flag unfurled.
 See how she bravely goes to do her part!
 How fearlessly she stands before the world!
 Vast fields are everywhere throughout the Lands,
 In these she plants the seed that surely grows
 Like fruit that waits the later gathering hands.
 Let joy be her's when, well at last, to know
 Earth's reapers find the sheaves where'er they go.

Earth travels on through the eternal years,
 Queen-like the WOMAN travels on her way.
 Undaunted are her hopes. She never fears
 And, with her face turned t'ward the newer day,
 Light breaks at last, and RIGHT is justly hers.

So dark the night, when HOPE'S lone distant star,
 Unseen at first, shed its faint glimmering ray.
 Forever HOPE had cast its beams afar;
 Faith ever knew that night would turn to day.
 Rights, long denied to WOMAN, come at last:
 And JUSTICE, never sleeping, finds its own.
 Gross error, dead, is buried with the past;
 Eternal MAN and WOMAN—both are one.

Long rolled the weary days and passing years;
 Earth's hopeful minds had their prophetic view;
 And TRUTH, again, knew victory would be hers.
 Great Souls survive defeat and ever do!
 Upon those fields where courage never dies
 Each CAUSE works out the world's great Destinies.
 —B. FRANKLIN HUNTER.

LAND SALE.

Pursuant to an interlocutory decree of the County Court of Henry County, Tennessee, entered in the Cause of R. L. Jenkins, et al, vs. Mollie Edwards, I will on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1914,
 AT 1 o'clock, p. m.,
 offer for sale at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash at the North door of the Court house, in the City of Paris, Tennessee, the following tract or parcel of land lying in the 12th Civil District of Henry County, Tennessee, and bounded on the north by Speight; on the south by Brogden, on the east by Mathews; and on the west by Carmack, containing by estimation 245 acres, the same being the land of which J. T. Jenkins died seized and possessed. Rents and profits for the present year, (1915,) reserved, the purchaser to be given possession on January 1, 1916.
 This Oct. 20, 1915.

Goose Girls.

The Goose Girls' Hallowe'en entertainment given at Miss Berdie Greer's on Saturday evening was one of much pleasure and enjoyment. Upon arriving the guests were met by spooks, and reading a sign over door were required to whistle before entering. Fortunes were told many different ways in the gypsy tent and your palm was read and many secrets revealed. Through the entire house black cats, pumpkin faces and witches prevailed and one forgetting themselves thought they were in spookdom. From an old fashioned pot rack with fire aflame delightful chili was served together with sandwiches, fruit salad and pumpkin pies, after all this we found to do, we also saw the invitation was true, that the Goose Girls were not silly, and did all this besides sitting chilly.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my many friends for the nice vote that was given me. I am very proud of my vote for which I give my friends credit. To those who saw proper to vote against me I have no ill feeling for them. Each man voted no doubt according to what he thought was best for the whole people.

I stand pat to the nominee.
 Yours truly,
 JOHN COBEN.

Just The Right Present.

Don't take chances in the matter of Christmas presents. You don't want yours, like so many others, to be received with indifference or worse, and ten days after Christmas to be cast aside and forgotten.

You take no such chance in giving The Youth's Companion for a year.

Did you ever know of a home in which it came amiss, or of one in which it was not conspicuous on the library table or in some one's hands all through the year?

It is worth while to make a gift of that sort, and it is worth while to receive it, too, for The Companion illustrates the best traits in American life in its stories and sketches, upholds the best standards in its articles and other contributions, and combines the practical and informing with the entertaining and blood-stirring.

If you do not know The Companion as it is to-day, let us send you one or two current issues free, that you may thoroughly test the paper's quality. We will send also the Forecast for 1916.

Every new subscriber who sends $2.00 for the fifty-two weekly issues of 1916 will receive free all the issues for the rest of 1915 and The Companion Home Calendar for 1916.

To Drive Out Malaria
 And Build Up The System
 Take the Old Standard GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents
